

565545 Towerline Rd.
Woodstock, ON N4S 7W3

Shipping to Mexico is easier than you think!

This information is what you need for your shipment to Mexico to go seamless.

Shipper Information in Canada:

Name: _____	Contact: _____
Address: _____	Phone: _____
City, Prov, Postal _____	Email: _____

Consignee Information in Mexico:

Name: _____	Contact: _____
Address: _____	Phone: _____
Address 2: _____	Email: _____
City, State, CP Num _____

MX Customs broker affiliate at US/MEX border(Forwarder):

Name: _____	Contact: _____
Address: _____	Phone: _____
Address 2: _____	Email: _____
City, State, ZIP _____

Most Mexican consignees have a Mexican freight forwarder set up at the land crossing entering Mexico (ex. Laredo, TX.) The consignee is responsible for a 15% import duty that must be paid before the product enters Mexico. The importer must also be listed on the 'Padrón de Importadores' through the MX government.

Continued on next page.....

Phone: (519)539-8801
Fax : (519)467-0104

info@countrytransport.com
www.countrytransport.com

565545 Towerline Rd.
Woodstock, ON N4S 7W3

US Customs broker:

Is the freight going in bond? Yes or No (If no, a consumption entry needs to be made.)

- Who is responsible for paying for transaction? Shipper
- Consignee or importer of record
- Carrier(bonds only)

US Customs broker: _____ Account Number: _____

The shipper usually has a US customs agent at the land border going into the US. Most shipments go in bond so the shipper does not need to pay US duties. Country Transport has a US Customs agent capable to put loads in bond for a nominal

MX Crossing:

- Who is responsible for the MX crossing MX Customs Broker (Consignee)
- Carrier

MX Customs broker: _____ Contact: _____
Email: _____

Freight Description:

Type of freight Truckload (TL) Less than Load (LTL)

Incoterms® on invoice _____

Description of freight: _____

Number of pieces: _____(pallets, feet) Floor Loaded On Pallets

Weight: _____

Expected delivery Date: _____

Visit www.countrytransport.com to learn more about how easy we can make shipping to Mexico. Feel free to call Country Transport at any time.

Phone: (519)539-8801
Fax : (519)467-0104

info@countrytransport.com
www.countrytransport.com